DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This three story, two bay brick house with shed roof is an enlargement of an 1850's house and undoubtedly originally had a bracketed cornice like the neighboring pair of houses at 1125-1127 S. Hanover St. The house has been covered with formstone.

The house is three stories in height, 16' wide, and occupies a lot 123' deep. A two story high, one bay wide and deep stair hall extension connects the main house to a two story high, four bay deep rear addition. The house was probably constructed in running bond but the facade has been covered with formstone. The shed roof currently has no cornice. A single rectangular chimney is located along both the front and rear sections of the south side of the house. There are hooded chimneys located at the rear end of the addition and along the middle of the north side of the addition.

Although the formstone covering hides the original treatment of the lintels and sills, it is apparent that the door and window openings originally had segmentally arched brick lintels with scroll-sawed tympanums. The sills are hidden. All of the window openings are filled with 1/1 double hung sash. A panel door with upper lights is set beneath a single light transom. The house sits on a high basement, the entrance being reached by four wood steps. A rectangular basement opening is located to the right of the steps.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This house was probably built as a two story plus attic, gable-roofed house, and was later enlarged to a shed roofed, full three story house after the Civil War. The house was built by Philip March, a wheelwright who had his shop on Henrietta St.¹ In 1867 March sold the house for $1190 to a John Conner, a laborer.²
